Sunrise Ceremony Honors Veterans

BALLS BLUFF, VA - On Veterans Day, November 11th, in the cold early hours of the day, members from the post and the community conducted the annual Sunrise Ceremony for Veterans at Balls Bluff National Cemetery.

Salutes rendered as the Colors are raised during the Sunrise Ceremony

The ceremony included the flag raising, a speech by Post Commander Ray Delpesche, recognition of veterans by branch, reciting of the poem "In Flanders Fields" and a gun salute.

Following the ceremony, veterans were invited for breakfast at the Leesburg IHOP, where camaraderie was shared and bodies warmed up.

Afterwards, the George C. Marshal House hosted its annual Veterans Day commemoration, in which Comrade Dennis Boykin presided as master of ceremonies.

Churches and schools across the county offered programs honoring veterans. ✕

Buddy Poppy Drive Brings Over $4K to Support Vets

LOUDOUN COUNTY, VA - Throughout Veterans Day weekend, post members and volunteers were collected donations from the public in exchange for Buddy Poppy flowers.

Northern Virginia Community College Student Veterans Association and the Herndon Civil Air Patrol collected donations from patrons of Loudoun County Giant supermarkets in order to grow the post's Relief Fund.

Phil Rusicoelli, the Buddy Poppy Chairman, stated that over $4,800 had been raised during the drive.

100% of the funds collected are used to support veterans in need as well as their families and service members within Loudoun County. The VFW has used the Buddy Poppy program since 1922 as a way to generate money for those in need.

Post Honors Retired Flags

Comrade Max Salutes the Retired Flags

LEESBURG, VA - In the morning of October 28th, Post 1177 conducted its semi-annual flag retirement ceremony. Over 50 U.S. Flags were given proper retirement rites, which included a ceremonial burning, saluting and spreading of the ashes.

Comrade Max Gutierrez headed the event, which included the preparing and conducting the retirement of the flags.

Post 1177 collects worn and damaged U.S. flags from the local community for proper retirement. There is a flag collection box located outside the side entrance to the post.

Mementos, consisting of the eyelets from flags retired in previous ceremonies, were offered to the participants of the event as a souvenir.

The next Flag Retirement will take place in early Spring, next year. Youth groups and the community are invited to participate and learn about the history of the U.S. Flag. ✘

Halloween Parade Tradition Continues

LEESBURG, VA - On the evening of Tuesday, October 31st, Halloween, the local Kiwanis Club hosted the 61st Leesburg Halloween Parade keeping the holiday traditions alive and well within the community.

Post 1177 was there to celebrate, with the Post VFW Riders roaring down King Street through downtown Leesburg. The Post Jeep, manned by comrades Dennis Boykin and Les Flores gave out candies and treats to the costumed children attending the event. Comrades Max Gutierrez and Phil Ruscuillei led the VFW with the post banner.

The post handed out over four shopping bags full of candy to the costumed children lining the route of the parade, which covered most of King Street.

The Leesburg Halloween parade is one of the largest events of its type in the country, drawing hundreds of participants and thousands of attendees. ✘

District 10 Commander Visits Post

LEESBURG, VA - On the 1st of November, during the Post's monthly Members Meeting, District 10 Commander Chuck Wilson presented to the post awards honoring its commitment to veterans, the community and the VFW. In addition Commander Wilson updated the post on District level business and plans, as well as past efforts to secure tax-exempt status for non-profit Veteran Service Organizations for the State of Virginia. He also congratulated the post for earning All-American status and the Home Depot Renovation grant. ✘

Post Renovations Underway

LEESBURG, VA - During the second week of November, post member volunteers and volunteers from Home Depot began making improvements to the post home.

Bill Packard, the chairperson of the Building Committee has headed the improvements on the post, which includes new walls for the interior, new doors, new lighting and improvements to the storage shed.

In October, the post earned a $20K grant from Home Depot to improve and update the aging building which has served the VFW and the community since 1950.

Renovations are expected to be completed by the end of the year. Special thanks to Home Depot and all volunteers. ✕

VFW District 10 Virginia - Puller Veterans Care Center Breaks Ground

VINCENT HILL, VA - Just a few decades ago, Vint Hill Farms was home to thousands of military people and their families. Today, a 30-acre section of the property is taking on a new life as a future home for Virginia's veterans.

The new facility, slated to open in 2019-20 timeframe, is on a site that was home to an Army intelligence-gathering station until it closed in 1997. The $48-million Veterans Care Center is named after the Puller family, which has deep roots in the Northern Virginia area, including famed U.S. Marine Gen. Lewis "Chesty" Puller; his wife, retired state Sen. Linda "Toddy" Puller; and his son, Marine Lt. Lewis Puller, Jr.

On October 29th, Gov. Terry McAuliffe and a host of other elected leaders picked up their shovels to break ground on the Puller Veterans Care Center, formally kicking off construction on a 128-bed facility for recovering veterans at the intersection of Vint Hill Road and Vint Hill Parkway in Warrenton.

Del. Rich Anderson, 51st District, Life Member of the VFW, and a vocal backer of veterans issues, teamed up with Del. Kirk Cox, 66th District, to sponsor legislation to allocate funding for the centers. Meanwhile, Toddy Puller herself, then a Senator for the 36th District, introduced a companion bill.

Del. Scott Lingamfelter, 31st District, and Life Member of the VFW, pointed out that the center will bring about 150 "good, solid, well-paying jobs" to his district, and many of those workers could soon settle in the area. "As Vint Hill develops, they can live, work and shop all through this area," Lingamfelter said. "It's just the perfect setting...and it shows that Virginia is not going to leave its veterans behind."

The VFW Post 1503 Color Guard performed the "Posting of the Colors." ❖

VFW District 10 Virginia - USAF Chief of Staff Speaks at Ceremony

QUANTICO NATIONAL CEMETARY, VA - On Veterans Day, November 11th, General David Goldfein, US Air Force Chief of Staff, honored our veterans with his keynote speech at the National Veterans Day Ceremony, held since 1983.

The Chairman, Potomac Region Veterans Council (PRVC), and Commander of VFW District 10, Chuck Wilson, Colonel, USAF (Ret), was the Master of Ceremonies. Wilson said, "for generations, the men and women of America's Armed Forces have demonstrated their willingness to put country before self ... patriots who serve for the greater good ... who don't seek glory or recognition or personal gain. And today, we honor them. Today is Veterans' Day."

PRVC Vice Chairman Randy Coker, led the "Avenue of Honor Recognition" which displays over 500 US Flags that have been donated to honor our veterans who have passed from our midst. Coker is the past Commander of VFW Post 1503 and currently Senior Vice Commander of VFW District 10, Virginia's largest District covering much of Northern Virginia. ❖

VFW National - VFW Receives WWP Grant to Aid Transitioning Vets

KANSAS CITY, MO (November 7, 2017) – The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S. has been awarded a Wounded Warrior Project® (WWP) financial grant in the amount of $443,145 to expand its reach to service members at the time of transition. The grant will be applied to the VFW's Pre-Discharge claims program, which offers free assistance on military installations across the country to transitioning service members and veterans in filing VA claims, and understanding the benefits available to them through the Department of Veterans Affairs.

"One of the VFW's top priorities is ensuring our returning military service personnel receive the benefits they've earned," said VFW National Commander Keith E. Harman, a retired county veterans' service officer.

"We're thankful for the continued support shown by Wounded Warrior Project. With 24 Pre-Discharge claims offices across the country, this grant helps ensure the VFW is able to continue to provide the guidance and assistance our transitioning service members deserve."

The VFW Pre-Discharge claims program's proven history of guiding military personnel through the complex VA claims process makes it well-deserving of such a large charitable investment. In 2016, VFW representatives on military installations helped file nearly 15,400 VA claims for transitioning service members and veterans.

WWP grants provide a network of comprehensive supportive services that meet the varying needs of warriors and family members. The organization places a priority on working with others to harness subject matter expertise to reach a greater number of injured veterans, having teamed up with 93 organizations, reaching more than 14,000 veterans and 3,000 family members since 2012. ✖

VFW National - Vietnam Veterans Memorial Turns 35

WASHINGTON, D.C. -

The Vietnam Veterans Memorial, more popularly known as "The Wall", was dedicated 35 years ago on Nov. 13, 1982. Since then, more than 100 million people have visited the iconic structure, according to Jan Scruggs, founder of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund. The National Parks Service noted that nearly 5.6 million people visited in 2016, making it the nation's second-most popular memorial or monument.

Donations from more than 275K individuals and entities paid for the wall's construction. VFW contributed more than $300,000 and was one of its earliest champions.

Scruggs, a Vietnam War veteran and member of VFW Post 341 in Washington, D.C., said VFW "never wavered" in its support of The Wall when other organizations were against its design.
